Excerpt: . . . 11 of the stuff that goes on. It is this kind of attitude that if the Republicans are for it, the Democrats have to be against it and vice versa. The truth of the matter is that neither side is right all the time. In fact, most of the time, one side or the other is wrong, and we are just trying to put aside all of this partisanship and try to get down to doing what we think makes sense and not worry about who gets credit, who gets blamed, and just try to move things ahead. So, we have worked, and I have worked a number of different areas, but particularly on the Regulatory Affairs Subcommittee here. We did not get everything we wanted, but I think we did improve legislation as it moved along, and we have been able to work together. We look forward to doing that in the future. I would just say that there are a number of Democrats who feel like this regulatory process has gotten out of control. I think we had, what, somewhere between 50 and 75 Democrats that supported most of the regulatory reform issues, and we hope that we are successful in halting the successive regulation. I represent a farming area in northwestern Minnesota. My district runs 300 miles long from north of the Twin Cities up to Canada. We have, we like to think,...
