AUTHORHOUSE, United States, 2006. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 203 x 127 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****. Spread like sheet Silvery at dawn.! Introduces you to a life very broad and full of varieties. People go through a lot in experience. Thoughts and actions are what make them who they are. One can never be the same from birth. Everybody is overloaded with emotions. Those expressed freely without censorship bring out reality. However you are acting when it is suppressed. There is choice, color and interactions with people to make us who we are. While traveling, the teacher teaching, watching the flying eagle, pondering on the beautiful rainbow and your relationship with your creator are the experiences that keep remolding one. While you grow natural adjustments come. These poetries are supported with commentaries for spice. As you read the poems you discover feelings and meaning that will you make for yourself. Your intellectual curiosity is stimulated with some questions to make you float in your own mood.
