Createspace, United States, 2011. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 216 x 140 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.The apostle Paul wrote this book to the church at the Philippi for the express purpose of thanking them for a monetary gift they sent to him while he was in a Roman prison. The letter is not intended to correct them for any misbehavior on their part, but to express his deep love and appreciation for them. In the midst of all of his kind words he discusses several ways the Christian's lifestyle should differ from the way lost people live. He does this, almost incidentally, with love, patience, and understanding. He does not expect perfection in his fellow Christians. Rather, he wishes them to grow in Christ-likeness day by day. This book is designed for individual or group study. The book has 28 Chapters with an index and study questions. The study questions relating to each chapter are designed to help the students grow deeper in their spiritual commitment and daily walk with Christ. The book has 140 pages. The author draws on his many years of training and experience in the pastoral care field. His experience as pastor, correctional chaplain, college teacher, counselor, conference leader, among many other things has equipped him to help others along their spiritual journey.
