Kommunikation, Note: 1,3, University of Sunderland (School of Arts, Design, Media and Culture), Sprache: Deutsch, Abstract: Politics is connected with power. The acquisition of power, and the enforcement of a political belief can be achieved in a number of ways. One of the most obvious methods is through physical coercion. Under despotic and military regimes (for instance the dictatorship of Adolf Hitler), those in power often control people by using force. But also democracies can utilize language as a force to manipulate, influence and control people. In this assignment I will illustrate how language is employed to achieve political aims; particularly I will show how even nowadays politicians adopt original Greek rules of speech to increase the impact of their ideas and to persuade their audience of the validity of the politician's basic claims. Rhetoric is the ancient skill of elegant and persuasive speaking or the art of persuasive discourse. And persuasion is an art, primarily verbal, by which you get somebody to do what you want and make him at the same time, think that this is what he wanted to do all the time. The Greek philosopher Plato and Socrates believed rhetoric is the mother of lies distorts and conceals the truth and people who are insincere in their motives manipulate their audience. To examine the war rhetoric throughout U.S. history I will use three speeches of George H. Bush (While The World Waited, 1991), Bill Clinton (Radio Address Of The President To The Nation, 1998) and the ultimatum speech of George W. Bush...
