Our Nation has built one of the worlds most extensive and productive transportation systems, representing tril-lions of dollars of public and private investment. It is essential that we adequately maintain and modernize this vast, existing infra-structure to maximize its reliability, capacity and performance, and reduce operational and replacement costs to extend the systems useful life. We also seek to achieve the maximum economic impact from our transportation investments and lay the groundwork for long-term economic growth and prosperity. It is essential to determine which investments on both the passenger and the freight side will yield the greatest benefits to the transportation network, especially dur-ing this period of economic hardship and with difficult budget choices at all levels of government. Finally, the Obama Administration is committed to a comprehen-sive national energy and environmental policy that emphasizes re-ducing carbon emissions and consumption of fossil fuels as well as protecting and enhancing natural...
