Sixth Edition (January 2012). The big adventure for the men of D Troop, 94th Cavalry Reconnaissance Squadron, Mechanized (their official name), really began on October 8, 1944, when following a long cramped train ride they arrived at Camp Shanks, New Jersey. The journey which started in Camp Campbell, Kentucky, was finally over, and morale took a noticeable turn for the better. This was the staging area for the New York Port of Embarkation (POE), and the start of the Big One for which they had trained so long and so hard. At that point in time the author's Main Occupational Specialty (MOS) was to man the .50-caliber machine gun in a Peep (the armored soldiers' name for a jeep). Later, he became the gunner of an M8 armored car. The story of the author and his unit starts with their shipment overseas on the troopship Gen. James A. Parker and their landing in Marseilles, France. They undergo more training, followed by their first foray into combat in early December 1944. The rest of the story...
